INTRODUCTION

Octanex Limited must continuously keep the market informed by advising the Australian Securities Exchange (ASX) of events and developments relating to Octanex Limited that are reasonably expected to have a material impact on share price, as they occur. Significant criminal and civil penalties may be imposed on Octanex Limited and its officers if this is not observed.

This policy sets out the rules for disclosing information to the ASX, the obligations on Octanex Limited and its people, and the procedures put in place by Octanex Limited to comply with these rules.

This policy is in addition to the rules Octanex Limited must comply with for routine disclosures to the ASX, such as quarterly, interim and annual reporting.

This policy should be reviewed in conjunction with Octanex Limited's Share Trading Policy.

DISCLOSURE OBLIGATIONS

ASX Listing Rule 3.1 requires Octanex Limited to immediately disclose to the ASX information concerning Octanex Limited that it is or becomes aware of that a reasonable person would expect to have a material effect on the price or value of Octanex Limited's shares.

This rule does not apply to particular information while each of the following are satisfied:

- one or more of the following applies:
 - i. Disclosing the information would be a breach of a law;
 - ii. The information concerns an incomplete proposal or negotiation;
 - iii. The information comprises matters of supposition or is insufficiently definite to warrant disclosure;
 - iv. The information is generated for internal management purposes; or
 - v. The information is a trade secret; and
- the information is confidential and the ASX has not formed a view that the information has ceased to be confidential; and
- a reasonable person would not expect the information to be disclosed.

If the ASX considers there is or is likely to be a false market in Octanex Limited's securities, the ASX may ask Octanex Limited to disclose information or make a statement to correct or prevent the false market. This may occur where there is market speculation or media reports arising from a leakage of confidential information concerning a proposal or negotiations that have not been disclosed by Octanex Limited because the exception to Listing Rule 3.1 applies. Octanex Limited must immediately provide the ASX that information. Information must not be selectively disclosed to others, such as prospective shareholders or analysts, before it is disclosed to the ASX.

OBLIGATIONS ON OCTANEX LIMITED PEOPLE

It is the responsibility of each director, officer and employee to advise any of the Chief Executive Officer or Chief Operating Officer (Octanex Limited contacts) immediately in relation to any information about Octanex Limited of which the person is aware, and which has not been released to the ASX and may be price sensitive. That is, the information might influence someone to buy or sell Octanex Limited's securities.

It is also their responsibility to immediately advise one of the Octanex Limited Contacts of any circumstances that may make, or have made, any publicly released price sensitive information potentially, or actually, inaccurate (such as a forward looking statement), so that a correcting statement may be released as soon as possible. If a person is unsure about the importance or relevance of the information which has become known, the information should be reported to one of the Octanex Limited Contacts, so that a decision may be made about whether or not to disclose the information to the ASX.

ASX RELEASES

Upon receipt of any information, it is the responsibility of either the Chief Executive Officer or Chief Operating Officer to determine if the information is required to be disclosed to the ASX. If it is deemed that a release should be made to the ASX, arrangements to draft the release must be made in conjunction with:

- the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Operating Officer
- a Qualified Petroleum Reserves and Resources Evaluator where the information contains new reserves or resource estimates;
- A technical adviser where the information contain technical matters
- the Chief Financial Officer where the information concerns financial matters or has a financial effect;

Once the release has been drafted, the final form of the release is to be approved for release to ASX by the following

- Chief Executive Officer and/or Chief Operating Officer;
- The Board of Octanex Limited, where requested to do so by the Chief Executive Officer because the information involves a material decision or event with the potential to have significant consequences for Octanex Limited's stakeholders

Once approved for release to the ASX, the Company Secretary will arrange for its immediate release via the ASX Online lodgement platform.

MANAGEMENT OF THIS POLICY

The Company Secretary is responsible for:

- Liaising with the ASX in relation to continuous disclosure matters.
- Ensuring timely disclosure of material information to the ASX
- Liaising with any of the Octanex Limited Contacts in relation to the form of disclosure by Octanex Limited.
- Keeping records of releases to the ASX
- Reviewing this policy in light of any changes to the rules governing continuous disclosure and recommending changes to the Board for its approval.

Approved by the Board on 15 September 2015
